Confident Talking Birds & Bees with Kids

"My Child is Made For More, an education program by FLS is an amazing workshop that equipped me with tips on how I can talk about sexuality with my kids."

Daphne, 28

Jobless and Pregnant with Second Child

"The darkest day in my marriage came when my husband told me to abort our baby. Both of us were jobless, and having a second child was a huge financial issue. Fortunately, PCS and FLS counsellors journeyed with us and I am glad that I now have two wonderful children. Thank you FLS!"

Raising A Strong and Happy Family

"Disagreement on how we should spend and raise children made us drift apart. After sharing with the FLS marital and family therapist, we have become better aligned on how we can raise a strong and happy family together."
